

Ryan Ball - Ceramics/Pottery

Artist's Statement/Biography: Ryan has been working in clay for nearly a decade. He was hooked on the craft since he was exposed to the excitement of making pottery in college in Louisiana while pursuing a BFA photography degree. Ryan has been producing ceramic works ever since with a focus on functional wares for the kitchen and dining room. He also spent 2 years as a production potter after moving to the Twin Cities gaining invaluable experience, honing the art of wheel throwing pottery and creating matching sets of pieces in large quantities.

Description of Art Produced: Ryan makes wheel-thrown porcelain and stoneware pottery. Made to be stylish and functional. Durable for everyday use and the microwave and dishwasher. He takes inspiration from gestural, natural forms and textures found in nature.

Other Important Information: Ryan welcomes custom commission work, especially large quantity work such as kitchen dish sets, event keepsakes, wedding center-pieces, etc. Please contact at ryanballphotog@gmail.com for more information.
